Fall 2007 Intern

This semester has gone by so fast, I can't believe it is already my last day! I want to let all of you know how much I have enjoyed being a part of the TSC Team. I feel like I have learned so much being here and I hope I was able to help you in whatever way possible. I wish everyone the best over the holidays, have a wonderful time with your family and friends. I know 2008 is going to be a great year for TSC! Thanks, Lauren

Fall 2007 Intern

I appreciate that everyone has been willing to toss me in the deep end as opposed to the kiddie pool. I'm learning so much and enjoying the experience tremendously.
Regards, Jen

Summer 2007 Intern

Dear Team,

On April 18th, I came to TSC not really knowing what to expect aside from a summer of school and work. It's safe to say, I got a lot more out of the Tom Sawyer Company than I expected. Everyday was a new journey down a different road. From the doldrums of finding all the churches in the great state of South Carolina to crisis communications and drafting responses to journalists who bashed the Department of Homeland Security it has been an eventful ride. I wanted to use this as an opportunity to let all of you who I have had the privilege to work with that I undoubtedly learned more from all of you than I ever expected to. I definitely feel that after my time here, with the skills I've learned I am at a position where I can make an immediate impact wherever I go; and for this I owe thanks to all of you for putting me in different situations to find my way out of.

The Tom Sawyer Company took a gamble on me, and I hope it paid off for all of you because it most certainly paid off for me! I hope one can see that this internship meant a lot to me, and I hope I performed up to the standards the Tom Sawyer Company has set for its interns. Thanks again.

Cordially,
Varun
